

Objective	Achieved	Description
1. All pages will be template based.	YES	I used a template to create all of the pages for the site , I got the template from an external website creator called “Wix.”
2. The website shall contain 2 tables that show product prices and web developers contact details.	YES	My website includes tables on pages “L and ‘ContactUS’. The BuyMICStuff table displays products and their prices. The ContactUs table displays web developers name and contact information.
3. The site shall contain existing assets for example existing graphics, pictures, logos and videos.	YES	On every page there is an existing image. On all pages there is a moving GIF.
4. Website will contain various appropriate graphics and animations created/edited by myself.	YES	I created an animation using Photoshop where there are 121 images on a loop that change automatically. The images change every second and it is placed in image placeholder on all of my pages. I created my banner using Photoshop cs5.1. It incorporates the images at the top and my title’ and logo. I also edited numerous images in Photoshop – resizing photos, removing backgrounds for use on various pages.
5. The website will contain a sound file created by myself.	YES	On the webpage there is an embedded file which when clicked will play a sound file. The sound file is used so that anyone who has difficulty reading or has a disability can click on the file and the page will be read out to them. The sound file is correct and relevant to the information displayed on the Home webpage.

6. The website shall contain an interactive photo gallery. (format - video file)	YES	On the homepage there is a 121 image gif constantly running on a loop also there is a gallery on 3 different pages containing a gallery of 10-12 images which all all interactive.
7. The website shall contain at least 3 videos which should be relevant to the Website.	YES	There are numerous videos on numerous webages on my website, there are 4 of relevance on the videos tab, along with 7 of relevance on the Pentakill! page.
8. The website will have a page that collects data from the user in a format of a data collection form.	YES	On the contact us page there is a form were they can type information that sends directly to my email.
9. The website will provide feedback to the user through the data collection form.	YES	On the Community page there is a comments section were I can collect data through the use of data collection form.
10. The website shall contain roll over effects, such as image swap and roll over effect on the menu and images.	YES	A role over effect on the contact us button on the home page.
11. Each file on the website should be optimised to ensure quick loading and run time.	YES	All files on the website aren't huge so they run rather fast.
12. Hyperlinks should be used in the website to connect to each of the other pages.	YES	I have a lot of hyperlinks to the youtube videos.
13. Consistent menu's and anchor links should be used throughout the website.	YES	Anchor links on quite a lot of images.

14. There is user interaction on every page in some element.	YES	On all pages there is some sort of interaction element.
15. The website shall include accessibility issues for example images enlargements, text enlargements, sound files, links to external WebPages, external files and internal links.	YES	Yes, there is a speech impairment section on the website.
16. The data collection form will contain special features, such as dropdown list and textboxes.	YES	Dropdown lists in each tab on the spry menu apart from the index tab
17. The website will identify needed plug-ins on the website.	YES	Yes, on the index tab.
18. The website shall make use of spry tool tips to enlarge text for the user to give extra information.	YES	Enlargement on some text when mouseover.
19. Alt text will be provided for all images on the site.	YES	Most images have ALT text in galleries.
20. The colour scheme used should be appropriate and have a consistent layout structure on fonts, layout, design, menus and styles.	YES	Yes, the colour scheme is the same on all pages.
21. The website should be intuitive and easy to follow.	YES	It is rather easy to follow as the text stands out allowing it to be easily read and uncomplicated.
22. Each page must have at least one image or image in sidebar.	YES	All pages have images.
23. The website Links should be obvious to user were all the links are.	YES	Yes, they are all hyperlinked, a click will direct them.
24. The user should know were all the rollovers are.	YES	Yes, the user will know due to it being highlighted.
25. Each file on the website should be in a suitable format for web and devices.	YES	Yes, each downloadable file is a pdf file, suitable for all web browsers to download.
26. The website shall contain information on all cast members.	YES	Yes, it has my name at the bottom of them website.

27. There should be at least ten pages.	YES	12 pages
28. The website shall provide feedback to the user – thank you.	YES	Yes.
29. The website will have a link to storyboard and evaluation.	YES	Yes, on the index page.
30. Website will have at least one link to an external webpage.	YES	Yes it has multiple (see fan art page)
31. Website will have at least one link to an external file.	YES	Yes it has links to my files.